FROM THE SOCIAL OUTREACH MINISTRY

A very special THANK YOU for the many donations of school supplies! From the book bags to the pencils, each item is deeply appreciated and needed. Your generosity has made a huge difference for many young boys and girls this school year.

We would also like to THANK YOU for the ongoing support of St. Philip Neri Food Pantry. We have dedicated parishioners who go out of their way each month to shop and supply many of the needed food items for the pantry. September will be one year since our pantry first opened its doors in connection with the MD Food Bank. We serve an estimated 50 families each month which has totaled to approximately 1900 individual people in one year. Thank You for your continued support. Your donations have helped to feed these people and they are very thankful. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer to help with this ministry, please contact Alma @ 410-859-0571 ext: 220.

You may be facing surgery and don't know how you will get your medicines/groceries when you get home - or even who will change that light bulb in the ceiling. Maybe you are undergoing medical treatment and would really appreciate a home-cooked meal once or twice a week until you feel a bit more like yourself. Or perhaps you are in a difficult time and would simply like to ask for prayer support. Please consider allowing us to offer some Christian assistance. You may contact us by email at FISHministrySPN@gmail.com or call the Parish Office at 410-859-0571 and leave a message. Our goal is to be of service!

NEW ROMAN MISSAL REVISIONS“CONSUBSTANTIAL WITH THE FATHER”

Q: In the Niceno-Constantinopolitan Creed, why has "one in being with the Father" been changed to "consubstantial with the Father?"

A: The new translation is more in keeping with the ancient Latin text of the Creed and a more accurate translation.

The bishops at the Council of Nicea (AD 325), in order to ensure that Jesus was professed as the eternal Son of God, equal to the Father, stated that he is "the Son of God, begotten from the Father, the only-begotten, that is from the substance of the Father, God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten not made, the same substance (homoousion) with the Father..." The Creed of the Council of Constantinople (381), which is professed at all Sunday Masses and Solemnities within the Catholic Church, similarly stated: "We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of the same substance (homoousion) with the Father."

When these two ancient creeds were translated into Latin, the term "homoousion" was rendered as "consubstantialem," that is, "the same substance of the Father." Prior to the Second Vatican Council, the Latin "consubstantialem" was rendered as "consubstantial" within the English translation of the Creed. Many theologians and the Holy See thought that the term "consubstantial" was more in keeping with the Latin tradition and a more literal and accurate translation than the more recent "one in being."

This is in keeping with the mind of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, which published an Instruction, entitled Liturgiam Authenticam. It stated: "Certain expressions that belong to the heritage of the whole or of a great part of the ancient Church, as well as others that have become part of the general human patrimony, are to be respected by a translation that is as literal as possible" (no. 56).
