DEACON'S PONDERINGS

I've been pondering Mother's Day. God bless all of our Mothers. Here are some thought about Mothers. None of which are original. A Mother takes twenty years to make a man of her boy, and another woman makes a fool of him in twenty minutes. A mother is a person who seeing there are only four pieces of pie for five people, promptly announces she never did care for pie. God could not be everywhere, so He created mothers. The phrase "working mother" is redundant. Sweater, n.: garment worn by a child when its mother is feeling chilly. If evolution really works, how come mothers only have two hands? It's not easy being a mother. If it were easy, fathers would do it. A little girl, asked where her home was, replied, "where mother is". There is nothing like a mama-hug. An ounce of mother is worth a pound of clergy.

Please pray for me. I always pray for you. I love you.
Deacon Bob.

(In the day of my trouble I will call to you, for you will answer me. –Ps. 86:7)
